

A festival of German Christmas

Snowflakes settle on your hat. Your nose tingles with the smells of sausages, waffles and mulled wine. You are entranced and transported. You are here, in 2008, and you are there, 700 years ago, when Christkindl Markets began in Germany.

Welcome to the magic of Canada's original Christkindl Market.

Make new memories or return to your favourite smells, tastes, sights and sounds of Christmases past. Visit the website for details.

"Think Oktoberfest, except that the beer is replaced with Christmas cheer." says Rebecca Tucker of the National Post. Admission, entertainment and festivities are FREE (even parking in city lots on Saturday and Sunday). There's so much to do for all ages.
