

Christkindl 2010

A Festival of German Christmas swings, sings and sparkles to life starting Dec. 2 at Kitchener City Hall.

The annual celebration, which began in 1996, now attracts some 35,000 visitors annually to a four-day celebration of authentic German gifts, food, songs and dance. Doors open Dec. 2 at 10 a.m. and all events are free.

Kitchener's Christkindl is one of the largest German-style Christmas celebrations in North America.

From the moment you arrive, you are transported to an old-world of sparkling ornaments, high-stepping folk dancers in swirling skirts, the insistence of brass bands, and barrel-chested men singing a gentle German lullaby as snowflakes drift down to settle on your hat and melt off your nose.

And everywhere, the smells of food: roasted beer nuts, bratwurst, goulash soup, sauerkraut, potato pancakes.

Christkindl. Not to be missed. Never to be forgotten.
